

Chelsey Jay

(808) 220-4166 – chelsey@malamalearningcenter.org

Professional Experience

Mālama Learning Center (MLC)

Education & Community Partnerships Coordinator

2013-present

- Collaborate with educators, students, and community partners to create programs that address educational needs and integrate themes of environmental stewardship, sustainability, green careers, healthy living, and cultural knowledge.
- Coordinate and implement multiple education programs for West O'ahu communities.
- Supervise interns and volunteers.
- Assist with fundraising and grant proposal and report writing as well as data tracking.
- Conduct outreach to spread awareness about MLC's community-based programs.

Hawai'i Environmental Education Alliance (HEEA)

HEEA Fellow

2012-2013

- Maintained HEEA website updates and social media presence.
- Assisted with planning and coordination of the HEEA 2013 Environmental Education Symposium focusing on registration, volunteer coordination, and subcommittee participation.

College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources (CTAHR) UH Mānoa

Agriculture & Environmental Outreach Student Assistant

2012-2013

- Conducted outreach presentations at local high schools promoting the UH Mānoa CTAHR programs.
- Assisted in coordination of the 2013 Hawai'i AgDiscovery Program for high school students.
- Compiled the Saturday Gene-iuses curriculum for the UH Biotechnology Outreach Program.

Education

University of Hawai'i at Mānoa

Master's in Educational Foundations, May 2016

University of Washington, Seattle

Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science and Resource Management, June 2012

Kamehameha Schools Kapālama, Class of 2007